

Married

HANELL—HENDRIX—At 1:00 P. M. Sunday March 9, Miss Roxie May Hannel and Mr. Ephraim W. Hendrix at the home of the bride's parents in Burlington, Ind. Only the immediate friends of the bride and groom were present. This young couple start in life with the brightest prospects. Their home was already furnished and they went at once to occupy it. They are working young people and deserve success. May their efforts in life be blessed. Ceremony by the writer.

L. O. HUBBARD.

BURNES—GARST—March 5, 1902, at high noon, in Somerset, Wabash County, Indiana, sister Lizzie, only daughter of Brother and Sister John Garst, and brother Elsie A. Burnes, in the presence of about 30 friends and relatives. After the ceremony we repaired to the dining room where the table groaned under a load of almost everything good to eat, and the unanimous decision was that all present including the preacher did justice to the occasion. All enjoyed themselves and wished the happy couple a long and prosperous life. May God bless them along the way.

D. A. HOPKINS.

Died

LANTZ—Clarence H. son of Hiram J. and Sarah E. Lantz, March 6, 1902. Aged 16 years, 5 months and 18 days. He united with the Brethren church at Gravelton about five years ago. He was a true friend, an industrious and dutiful son. This is one of the saddest occasions I have ever witnessed. This young man leaving home in the morning to see about work, was killed by a moving train. And the agony of his parents when apprised of the same, must surely have been great. May at this time Christ be near the bereft ones. Funeral services at Syracuse by the writer assisted by Rev. McColley of the church of God, in whose house the services were held.

WM. H. MILLER.

GOOD—John A. Good, at his home near Ebensburg, Cambria Co., Pa., March 3, 1902, aged 68 years, 11 months, and 6 days. He is survived by a widow and three sons, one son having preceded him to the land of spirits. Brother Good suffered from a complication of diseases for more than a year. A horse trampled on his foot and for a time it was feared blood poison would set in. This seemed to have paved the way for the complicated diseases that followed. He bore his sufferings with patience and grace. Brother Good was a member of the Pike Brethren church for some years, and considering his age and the distance he had to go attended the services regularly. His work is ended, he has gone to his reward. Services by the writer.

J. L. BOWMAN.

VAN DORAN—Mrs. Margaret A. Van Doran at her home No. 151 State St., Elkhart, Ind., March 11, 1902, aged 76 years. The funeral service was held at her home, March 13. Interment in Grace Laron. Thus one by one men and women are called to the great beyond. "Be ye therefore also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh."

L. O. HUBBARD.

HUFFER—Daniel Albert Huffer, March 4, 1902, aged 29 years, 11 months and six days. He was married to Miss Mable Cleaver Dec. 21, 1898. To this union one child was born, which preceded him to that better land. He united with the Brethren church two years ago under the pastorate of D. A. Hopkins, and lived a faithful and consistent life until the end. He suffered much, but bore it with Christian fortitude, and now has gone to occupy the room prepared for him in heaven. He leaves a wife, an aged father, three brothers, three sisters, beside a host of friends, to mourn his early departure. He was very seldom absent from the regular services, altho he had five miles to come. And now that his place is vacant he will be missed very much. Only a little while dear friend, and we will meet thee again, "Never to say farewell." Funeral services conducted by the writer, at the Ball Hill M. E. church, interment in the adjoining cemetery.

L. O. HUBBARD.

1801 S. Main St., Elkhart, Ind.

SWIHART—Emma Swihart, December 3, 1901, aged 23 years, 10 months and 21 days. She was united in marriage to Thomas A. Ping, Feb. 18, 1900. Mrs. Ping was the daughter of Eld. J. H. and Mrs. Mary Swihart, who formerly resided at Rossville, Clinton Co., Ind. She leaves to mourn their loss, a husband, father and mother, four sisters and two brothers. Mrs. Ping was baptized by Rev. L. W. Ditch, when about 11 years of age, and lived a faithful member of the Brethren church. When she moved to Frankfort, (and there being no Brethren church handy) she affiliated with the U. B. church but always claimed to remain firm in the Brethren faith. For about five years prior to Emma's death, she was much afflicted, but she bore her sufferings with Christian fortitude until the angel of death called her home.
